One of the first reviews I wrote for Reviews by Jessewave was the review for Julie Bozza's The Definitive Albert J. Sterne. So far, it's my only 5-star review and, if this was an independent book, the review for Future Bright, Past Imperfect would have been another/5. Feb 20, · Future Bright, Past Imperfect consists of eleven stories set between and They describe the events before, during and shortly after the events in the novel. The eleven short stories in this companion volume continue and expand on the lives of the characters from the same author's outstandingly popular The Definitive Albert J. Sterne, which should preferably be read first.

Gosh! Albert's companion volume has received some very flattering attention indeed! Thank you all for welcoming back the dear old curmudgeon. Three young boys on a collision course: Albert Sterne – isolated, driven, fiercely intellectual; Fletcher Ash – bright, dedicated, with a strong sense of justice; John Garrett – hurt, marginalised, determined to repay the world in kind.
