BG Dhritarashtra said: O Sanjay, after gathering on the holy field of Kurukshetra, and desiring to fight, Commentary: King Dhritarashtra, apart from being blind from birth, was also bereft of spiritual wisdom. His attachment to his own sons made him deviate from the . The Bhagavad Gita was spoken on the battleground of the Mahabharat war, an enormous war that was just about to begin between two sets of cousins, the Kauravas and the Pandavas. A detailed description of developments that led to the colossal war is . () It is said Arjuna was deluded by the will of Lord Krishna, the God, for the purpose of manifesting the teachings of the Gita, meant to enlighten and console bewildered souls. Bhagavad Gita with Explanation – English.

Bhagavad-Gita Questions and Answers. The Question and Answer section for Bhagavad-Gita is a great resource to ask questions, find answers, and discuss the novel. Madhvacarya has no commentary so we present Baladeva Vidyabhusana's. To properly illustrate the consistency in the conversation between Lord Krishna and Arjuna on the battlefield, Krishna Dvaipayana Vyasa has quoted the first 27 verses in chapter one beginning dharma-ksetra kuru-ksetra referring to Kuruksetra as the land of righteousness. The Bhagavad gita chapter1 indicates this blinding power of attachment through its starting question, its only verse spoken by the blind Dhritrashtra.
