A book is a miracle wrought by human agency. What more wonderful than that the thought of a lifetime should be made visible and concentrated so as to be carried in the pocket; that black lines and dots upon a white page should bring before our minds the most beautiful images. This little gem of a book has several chapter of importance. My favorite was the "The General Arrangement of the Garden". It really helped me understand how to pick flowers and plants from my local nursery. The language throughout the book can make you laugh since we no longer use words like "vixen", "delightful" and other quirky words/5(33).
